THE MINTMASTER'S QUILL: An Editor's Prerogative

My Friends,

Recently, at a meeting, not of a coin club, there was held a Turkey Drawing. For those unfamiliar, a turkey, ten to twenty pounds, is purchased and tickets, all at a fixed price, are sold, actually for numbered segments or parts, usually forty to fifty, of a drawing of a Thanksgiving-type turkey. When all the the segments have been bought, a drawing is held using numbered tags corresponding to the numbered segments of the drawn turkey. One winner claims the bird, and the group, after expenses, take the proceeds.

Your Editor is not explaining how to do a Turkey Drawing, but he will editorialize on what he overheard.

When one member was asked to buy tickets, he remarked sharply, as he flipped one dollar down on the table, "This is all you are going to get". His tone was direct as it was indifferent to the club's need to raise money.

My point is that many in our coin clubs have the same attitude: "This is all you are going to get". These individuals never participate, never contribute, never suggest nor propose, never work nor assist, never serve, and remain always indifferent or unconcerned to their coin club's needs or projects.

Many reasons might cause these individuals to be such, and some may be valid. We all certainly cannot give equally of our time, talents, thoughts, and treasures; yet, when some refuse to give or to do a share, then the burden falls, as it always does, unfairly and unequally.

As in the case of the Turkey Drawing, others had to purchase two or more segments, and still the Turkey was not completely sold out; but, if everyone attending, including the character in this editorial, had purchased just two dollars each, this club would have made its rent for two months.

Was it not worth the two dollars? Apparently not, and it is the same in so many coin clubs. The coin club is only worth the one dollar which now buys but four 25¢ stamps, until next year, of fifty #10 envelopes, when on sale.

Our hobby cannot depend upon such generosity, but it survives on the repeated sacrifices of a few who do more than their share. It is the cruelty of coin clubs, and of life, that instead of being equal and fair with everyone enjoying and giving it is unequal and unfair with so few giving, repeatedly, as everyone takes.

It is not the matter of the one dollar or even ten one dollars, for one dollar is better than none; rather, it is the attitude of "this is all you are going to get". The problems of mankind and the world can be traced to such a selfish indifferent opinion. It is a matter of fairness: too few give too much, and too many give too little or not at all.

Of course, what is written here is legion, and these words are but another cry in the vastness; however, it still remains the cruel fact that the continued support, and sacrifice, of some allows in a strange way of balance for so many

Diablo Numismatic Society Reports that its 1991 Officers, elected at the Society's recent Annual Christmas Party last December 18th, are: MAURICE ORTIZ, President; STAN TURRINI, Vice-President, STEWART HUCKABY, Secretary, and JAMES LIND, Treasurer. JUDY ORTIZ, the Chef for the Party, will continue as Editor of the monthly Diablo Die Break. The October 18th Meeting had a joint gathering of both the DNS and Solano Silver Round Club (SSRC); SSRC President STAN TURRINI and Secretary JAN HENKE shared tales and joys of silver rounds and also exhibited some of their collections. November 15th was the date of the Society's First Annual White Elephant Auction; not much was generated, but there was a lot of fun and good bargains.

Pacific Coast Numismatic Society Again reports that it is now meeting at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 2800 Taravel Street, corner of Taravel and 38th Avenue, San Francisco. September 26th had been the date of the famous PCNS Annual White Elephant Auction: "Undaunted by the sudden move to a new meeting place, PCNS members enjoyed another lively Auction--conducted by by STEPHEN HUSTON--of their most valued possessions. There were bargains galore as about $150.00 poured into the coffers, and the infamous flower pots, well, two of them, found new homes for the year thanks to the generous bidding of DAVID LANGE". Long-time and respected PCNSer, past Officer, coin dealer, and noted numismatist, STEPHEN HUSTON was at the November 28th Meeting elected a 'Fellow of the Society': "He joins the thirty perviously honored Fellows select-ed over the Society's past seventy-five years. He is the first Fellow since DON THRALL in 1984 . . . STEPHEN HUSTON has distinguished himself in his research and publications as a moving force in several areas of numismatics, most notably in ancient and medieval coins, especially in revising the known chronology of the coins of the Ptolemys. Among his many outstanding contributions to PCNS is his service as the Founding Editor of its quarterly PCNS Journal".

Cupertino Coin Club Heard at its November 2nd meeting GERALDINE SOLOMON speak on Coin Spoons: "GERALDINE SOLOMON gave us an interesting narration on a unusual subject, Coin Spoons. We learned that either the ancient Romans or Babylonians were the first people to make coin spoons. Early United States silversmiths melted coins to make spoons; they were not numismatists! Coin Spoons are rare but she was able to show us many examples, including those from Mexico, Malta, Peru, and the United States". October 5th meeting was the CCC's Annual Youth Night which was conducted by NATHAN MILLER who presented a program on "How and What To Collect". To conclude this Night, a 'Wheel of Coin Fortune' was done, and prizes valued from $3.00 to $20.00 given to those youths playing. The CCC ended 1990, its twentieth year 1970-1990, with its Annual Christmas Party at the December 7th meeting. The January 4, 1991 meeting of the CCC will be its historic milestone: the two hundred fiftieth (250th) Meeting!!!

Liberty Numismatic Society Heard MARK CLARK with a slide program from the Token and Medals Society (TAMS), "The Case of the Misplaced Soda Token", at its September 4th meeting. October 2nd meeting was the LNS' Annual Book Sale: "A greater than usual number of books and other numismatic literature, as well as the auctioneering talent of STEPHEN HUSTON were combined to realize some $570.00 for the Society's Treasury. While not a record for our Book Sales, it certainly holds a substantial second place. The Society thanks those who contributed and those who bid. A Special Thanks goes out to those handful of persons who stored some sizable donations for up to eleven months". The LNS ended 1990 with its Annual Holiday Gathering which included a drawing for a AU 1907 Five Dollar gold piece as the Prize in the Attendance Reward Drawing: "For each meeting you have attended in 1990, a ticket with your name has been placed in a box. The first name called will be the winner. You need not be present to win, but another ticket will be placed in the box for attending the Holiday Gathering at the December meeting".

Fremont Coin Club Elected its 1991 Officers at the November 27th meeting: FRANK WIECZOREK, President; KEVING SCHILLING, First Vice-President, JOHN HUSTON, Second Vice-President, CARL SNYDER, Treasurer, IRIS ATKINSON, Recording Secretary, ROGER LYLES, Corresponding Secretary, and ADRIANA BOURG, Junior Vice-President. These Officers will be installed at the FCC's Annual Installation Banquet on January 14, 1991 at the Fremont Inn.

Gateway Coin Club Writes that "Program Chairman JOEL ANDERSON dug deep and came up with a Coin Quiz authored a good many years ago" at the October 4th GCC meeting; the date of the Quiz was 1906! The November 1st meeting had the slide program 'Political Hard

Times Tokens', and the November 15th meeting had an undescribed program on Coin Cleaning. December 13th was the date of the GCC's Annual Club Holiday Banquet held at Carrow's Restaurent in Merced. The Editor of the monthly GCC's newsletter editorialized in its December Issue: "Over the years it has appeared that there are apparently there types of members: those who join and then do not participate, those who join, attend regularly, but do little in the way of organized assistance, and those who attend regularly and consistently serve the Club, whether in elective office or by volunteering to assist in particular activities, such as auctions, picnics, etc. Often the latter people serve under duress, BUT THEY SERVE, time after time after time . . . .".

Delta Coin Club Long-time DCC Editor SYD KASS in listing the 1990 Drawing Ticket Summary in the DCC's December Newsletter editorialized: "Is your name on this List? These are the members and Clubs that helped to make DCC's annual Coin Show finanically successful. Don't understand why more members failed to sell at least ONE ticket to themselves if nothing else. Your dues fail to meet the postal expense of YOUR montnly Newsletter plus all the FREE drawings at each meeting. Do YOU ever think of that? Please try to help support YOUR Club in the future. Every Club member had tickets to sell, but this list misses quite a few members".

Peninsula Coin Club Thanks those who supported and worked at its recent Coin And Collectables Show: JOE JURADO, DON BARSII, AL LO, RICH DOUGLAS, DICK SMITH, JOHN BROWNE, HUGH COURTEOL, DAN SHATTUC, JIM and AMANDA SOUTHWOARD, FRED van den HAAK, and others. Recent PCC meeting themes have been: October 8th, Commemorative Coins, November 12th, Coins With Edge Lettering, and December 10th, Morgan Dollars.

Fresno Numismatic Society Editor LOREN GAITHER of its The Fresno Numismatist in the October 1990 Issue writes a most provocative Editorial which your Editorial: "Have you ever heard a coin dealer talk about his 'personal collection'? Was there mention that he/she realy had a choice coin of a particular year, mint, etc, but is was not for sale because it is in his/her personal collection? I have, and I immediately decided not to do business with him/her in the future. I wondered if this was not a conflict of interest. If you ask a dealer to find the best possible coin for you and he finds a really choice coin but it happens to fit into his own collection, is he not tempted to find another 'acceptable' one for you and keep the choice one for himself? Even if in his heart he knows that he has his priorities right, and he would never do that, is not there some question in his customer's mind? Maybe all dealers should consider that their joy in coin collecting is owning these coins for a short time on their way to their new owners. Or, maybe they should collect something that they do not deal in, such as dolls, postmarks, antiques, or what have you. If dealers assume this posture, there is no conflict of interest--LG". Interesting and Questioning.

Napa Valley Coin Club Writes that its recent meeting programs have been: October 17th, First Foreign Coin Night, November 21st, First United States Cent Night, and December 19th, Sixth Annual Gold Night, which included lots of holiday refreshments. March 24, 1991 is the date of NVCC's 27th Annual Coin Show, in the Chardonnay Hall, on the Town and Country Fairgrounds, 575 Third Street, Napa; hours 9:00am to Closing. Admission is FREE. Write to: "PO Box 2154, Napa, California, 94558".

Redwood Empire Coin Club Has had JIM CASRTARPEN give a series of slide programs from the American Numismatic Association (ANA) over the past several meetings. JACK FREE, long-time RECC member and its Historian, is seeking woods issued by the Club in past years for the RECC's archives. The Club is planning a Dinner Meeting for its January 23rd meeting at Los Robles Lodge.

Solano Silver Round Club Held its Annual Christmas Party at Petrio's in Fairfield last December 13th at which the 1991 Officers were reelected: STAN TURRINI, President, HAROLD SALAS, Vice-President, JAN HENKE, Secretary, and CRAIG BLACKWOOD, Treasurer. The Club has begun holding quarterly fund-raising drawings with tickets available via the mail. Write to: "PO Box 3518, Fairfield, California, 94533".

Livermore Valley Coin Club Had the American Numismatic Association (ANA) slide program 'Ships and Boats on Modern Coin' at its November 20th meeting. The LVCC holds four (4) drawings at its meetings: On Time, Numismania, Raffle, and Final; "To enter the On Time Drawing, just arrive before 7:30! Everyone present by then gets a ticket for another drawing".

Stanislaus County Coin Club Has elected its 1990-1991 Officers: LAMAR HAWTHORNE, President, ROGER ELSBERRY, Vice-President, HAL DeBOARD, Recording Secretary, LES FOSTERMAN, Treasurer, and LINDA WILLIAMS, Editor. These Officers were installed at the SCCC's October 5th Installation Dinner held at El Castillo Mexican Restaurant in Modesto. LINDA WILLIAMS, Editor, wrote in November Issue of the SCCC's newsletter: "I enjoy this Club and can see a great potential. I hope that all of you that agree would put forth an effort to make our Club more positive and fun. The following are some things we can all do to make our Club a success:

1. Donate a little time each month.
2. Get Involved.
3. Make suggestions on what you would like from our Club.
4. Bring a positive attitude to our meetings, and
5. Bring a friend.

The rewards would be: a lot of fun enjoying what we all have in common, coin collecting, and we could have a great Club at the same time. Not just a good Club, but a great Club!". She ends, "Let's make this a positive year". Point Four is the most important one in my opinion--Your Editor.

Vallejo Numismatic Society Elected its 1991 Officers: CRAIG BLACKWOOD, President, HAROLD SALAS, Vice-President, KEN SPINGOLA, Secretary, and STAN TURRINI, Treasurer. The October 2nd meeting was the VNS's Annual White Elephant Auction. November 7th had DEAN ENDERLIN of Napa County's McLaughlin Mine speak at the 'Gold Night', which had over an ounce in gold as prizes, and December 5th was the Society's Holiday Party and Election Night; this Party for the first after an hiatus of several years. Both the Vallejo Numismatic Society and its neighbor the Fairfield Coin Club had their Fourth Annual Joint Christmas Party at Fairfield's Anheuser-Busch Brewery last December 15th. Some one hundred plus (100+) people attended an evening of food, fifty plus (50+) Door Prizes, over $2000.00 plus value in the Drawing Prizes, and the famous Goodie Bags equal in value to $30.00 each. The 19th Annual Vallejo Coin Show is set for Sunday, April 28, 1991, hours 9:00am to 5:00pm, at Dan Foley Cultural Center, Dan Foley Park, Tuolumne Street at End North Camino Alto, Vallejo. A forty plus (40+) table Bourse, exhibits, educational events, lots of free stuff, an All Gold Coin Drawing, and more are being planned. Bourse Tables are now available; write to: "MAURICE ORTIZ, Bourse Coordinator, PO Box 5096, Concord, California, 94524-0096".

Fairfield Coin Club Ended 1990 with its half of the previously reported Fourth Annual Joint Christmas Party. Exhibitors at the First Annual Fairfield Coin Show last September 23rd were: DON BARSI, JAN HENKE, STAN TURRINI, CRAIG BLACKWOOD, and JAMES LIND. The FCC's October 24th meeting had Bingo, and the November 28th meeting was the FCC's Annual White Elephant Auction. At the Joint Christmas Party, three special awards were presented: first, one each to CRAIG BLACKWOOD and JAN HENKE for their countless hours and tireless work in making the First Annual Fairfield Coin Show a success, and second, a special tribute to JAN HENKE in recognition of his decade of service and sacrifice to the Fairfield Coin Club. He will at the end of his term this January 1991 be retiring after eleven years as FCC's Secretary, Editor, and Historian. The Second Annual Fairfield Coin Show will be this September 22, 1991, Sunday, 10:00am to 4:00pm, in the Student Center, Solano Community College, Cordelia. Details Pending.

San Jose Coin Club Heard RICH NEDVED at its September 12th meeting on 'Collecting the Barber Series', EDWARD SINS, October 10th meeting on 'Early Coinage of Guatemala', and AL LO, November 14th meeting on 'Alaskan Bingles'. December 12th meeting was the SJCC's Annual Christmas Party. Mr. Sins' talk noted that he has been both a scholar and "collector of Spanish colonial coins for twenty-six years" and "displayed great knowledge of this little known area and supplemented his talk with a display of coins from his internationally recognized personal collection".

others to continue to say "this is all you are going to get".

In closing, sometime, someday unknown, those who have given more than "this is all you are going to get" will stop and disappear, leaving those who only give so little or nothing alone with the silence of emptiness, except maybe their precious one dollars.

Best Wishes Always.

Numismatically Yours,

NCNA Honors Enticement Program

The NCNA Board of Directors acted at its October 29, 1990 Meeting to implement the previously adopted Profit Sharing Plan as was summarized in the October 1989, page 4, Issue of NCNA Heads and Tales.

Three coin clubs worked and contributed to the success of the 1990 NCNA San Francisco International Coin Show last August 1990 and earned their part of the Profit Sharing Plan; these coin clubs were:

San Francisco Coin Club
Liberty Numismatic Society
Cupertino Coin Club

Also provided in this Plan was the option of the five elected executive NCNA Officers to select one coin club each; the five were:

Solano Silver Round Club by Treasurer Stan Turrini
San Jose Coin Club by Acting Secretary Constance Perham
Redwood Empire Coin Club by First Vice-President Ron Miller
Peninsula Coin Club by Second Vice-President Fred van den Haak
Los Gatos Coin Club by President Edward Sins

All eight of these listed coin clubs were mailed on November 5th their award of $100.00.

Coin Clubs interested in this Plan are invited to refer to and read the stipulations in the October 1989 Issue of NCNA Heads and Tales. In brief, these stipulations require the coin club and its members to assist the annual San Francisco International Coin Show in some itemized and stated means.

Those Coin Clubs desiring to participate this year, 1991, and help NCNA with its San Francisco International Coin Show may do so by beginning now to promote the Coin Show, other than just brief listings, in the Club's newsletter/bulletins.

Inquiries on this Plan which will be repeated in 1991 may be directed to Your Editor.

Thanks Received

As NCNA Heads and Tales goes to the printer, only three Coin Clubs of the eight total have have the courtesy to reply with thank yous:

Solano Silver Round Club
Redwood Empire Coin Club
Peninsula Coin Club

Their courtesy is most appreciated.
